

DRIVER EDUCATION BEHIND-THE-WHEEL (BTW) INFORMATION SHEET

- The cost for Driver Education Behind-the-Wheel training is $242 (rates are subject to change) • You must first obtain your driver's instruction permit to apply for BTW. You may take your instruction permit test at any driver's license exam station. No appointment is necessary.
- Complete BTW registration as soon as possible after you have passed your instruction permit test, as registration is first come, first serve by waitlist and sessions are by appointment only. • An instructor will contact you approximately one week in advance to schedule appointments for BTW. Unless otherwise notified, you will meet the driving instructor at the main entrance of the High School
- If a primary driving supervisor (parent/guardian) has completed the Supplemental Parental Curriculum by attending the Parent Awareness Presentation, the requirements for a provisional license include:
 - Submitting a driving log that states the applicant has driven a motor vehicle accompanied by and under the supervision of a licensed driver at least 21 years of age, for no less than 40 total hours, at least 15 of which were nighttime hours
 - Driving log identifies dates and lengths of driving time for each supervised driving trip
 - Primary driving supervisor signature on driving log
 - The Supplemental Parental Curriculum Course Certificate of Completion must be submitted • If a primary driving supervisor (parent/guardian) has not completed the Supplemental Parental Curriculum, you must submit a supervised driving log for no less than 50 total hours, at least 15 of which were nighttime hours
- If you are under 19 years of age, you need to wait 6 months after you receive a permit and have taken BTW training before you may take your driver's road test.
- If you are 19 or older, you need to wait 3 months after you receive a permit before you may take your driver's road test. • After completing six hours of BTW, you will receive a Certificate of Completion, referred to as a white card. You will need this card to take your driver's road test. Cost for replacement of lost or damaged cards is $10.
- You may take your driver's road test at any Driver's license exam station.
